

Agenskalns Student Hall

A place for personal and professional growth

Baložu Street 6

Riga, Latvia

An initiative of the Baltic Association for the Advancement of Education and Culture (BIKAB) to promote the integral development of Latvian students, families, and all with a desire to serve their fellow citizens.

What is AGENSKALNS Student Hall?

AGENSKALNS Student Hall is a university student residence for men with facilities for a youth club for boys from ages 10-16. It is located in Riga, Latvia, with easy access to the city center and various higher educational institutions.

What are its aims?

AGENSKALNS Student Hall seeks to help individuals who desire to serve their society by providing resources to help them form themselves humanly and professionally.

How are these aims achieved?

The residence hall offers a family atmosphere that fosters responsibility and respect for the personal freedom of each resident. Study is encouraged and supported through a study room, computer room, and library. Common mealtimes, cultural activities, excursions, and service projects foster friendship and the free exchange of ideas. The staff of the residence hall offers supplemental courses on various topics and

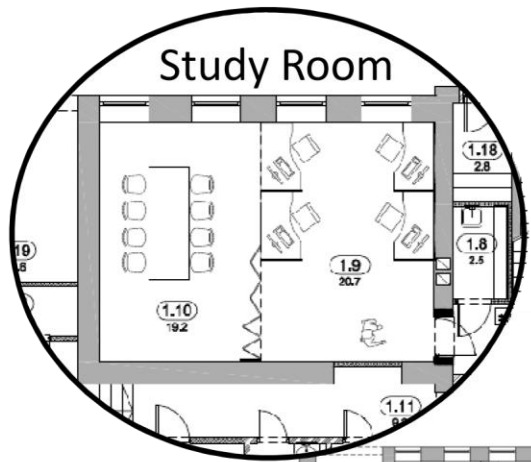

Who operates AGENSKALNS Student Hall?

The residence Hall is operated by the Baltic Association for the Development of Education and Culture (BIKAB), a non-profit association recognized by the government of Latvia as an association for the public good.

Spiritual activities at AGENSKALNS Student Hall will be entrusted to Opus Dei, a personal prelature of the Catholic Church dedicated to helping people seek sanctity through their work, family life, and ordinary activities.

For more information, please visit www.agenskalns.lv or call (+371) 6 732 0953.

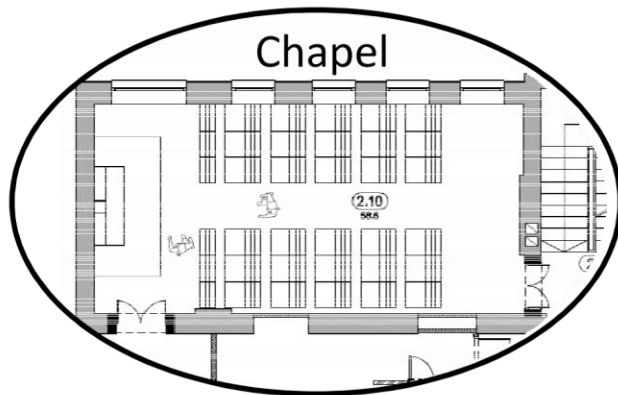

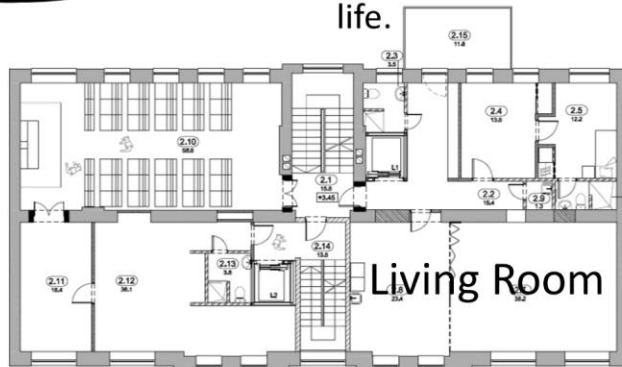

1st Floor

The first floor includes a study room, a computer room, and a large multi-purpose room.

2nd Floor

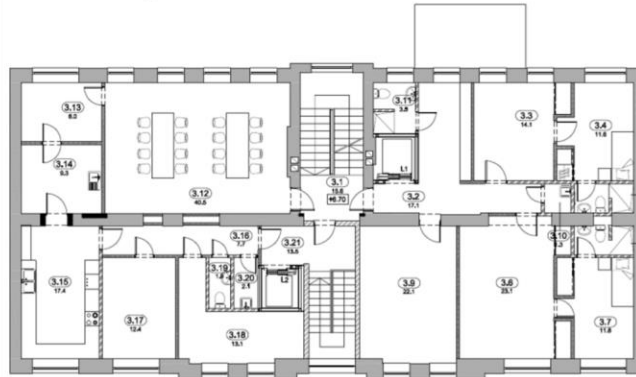

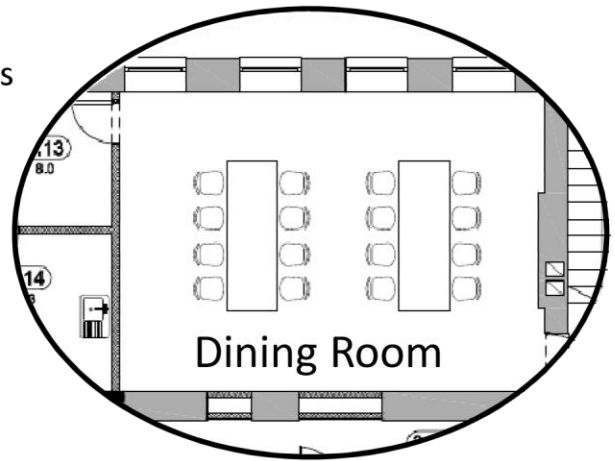

The chapel on the second floor is the spiritual center of the residence. Mass and other spiritual activities are offered there every day. A living room serves as center of the family life.

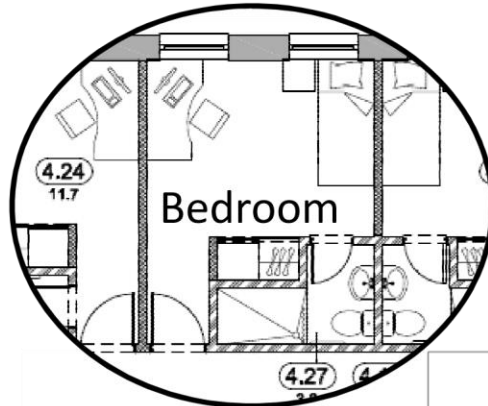

The dining room is for common meals. Together with the living room on the 2nd floor, it helps to foster a true family atmosphere and friendship.

3rd Floor

The fourth floor houses the residents' bedrooms. In total, sixteen people can live in Agenskalns student hall. Rooms are cleaned regularly and laundry service is provided.

4th Floor

